PLEDGE COMMITMENT (Very important, please read!)

All runners must guarantee their fundraising pledge (as indicated above) by providing valid credit card information with this registration. If by November 1, 2012, you have raised less than half your pledge, GRS will charge your credit card for an amount equal to half the pledge less the total amount raised. If by December 1, 2012, you have raised less than your full pledge, GRS will charge your credit card for an amount equal to the full pledge less the total amount raised. Once GRS registers your name and information with the ING NYC Marathon as a member of our Marathon Team, we are not permitted to substitute another participant in your place. Therefore, if you join the team but drop out and/or elect not to compete for any reason after your information has been submitted, you are still responsible for fulfilling your total fundraising pledge by December 1, 2012. *Credit cards will be tested for verification.
